QUALIFICATIONS

To qualify for a broker's license an applicant must have a high school education or equivalency and must successfully complete 150 hours of prelicensure education. Applicant(s) must first complete a 90-hour General Real Estate Course. Complete two (2) 30-hour courses in Agency & Ethics and Office Management related subjects. Additionally, applicant(s) must have been continually licensed and employed on a full-time basis as a New Jersey real estate salesperson for the three years immediately preceding application. Upon completion of all three courses, applicant(s) must submit to the Education Qualification Section of the Commission their completed school certificate as well as a completed Experience Report for Broker Applicant form. Upon review and approval, the applicant(s) will be mailed a Certificate of Examination Eligibility, which may be used to make a reservation to take the Broker license examination. Applicant(s) must pass the broker license examination and apply for and request the issuance of a license as a broker or broker-salesperson not later than one year after their successful completion of the broker prelicensure education requirements.
